

Videogame for children's cerebral palsy rehabilitation

The goal is to promote active movement in children with cerebral palsy to help in their recovery.

Big 4 buttons simple controller, intended for the kids to use easily.

The player moves to the flag with the same colour of the button pressed in the controller.

The player shoots arrows automatically when it has an enemy in front of it. If the enemy reaches the wall, it gets damaged.